A very brief overview…

Orientation

The orientation will include an introduction to Costa Rica and Latin America with the Nacho family covering themes such as history, church and theology and the current work and study they are doing with the churches. It will also include a day out in the city to visit the market, historical sites and museums.

Baptist Camp

This will include helping local "ticos" lead three camps: one for youth, one for middle school age and one for kids. The campers will be both from the city and rural regions of the country. The camps run Thursday to Sunday and the other days will be for studying, enrichment and completion of maintenance projects around the camp facility. The three proposed maintenance projects are:

1. Remodeling the main cabin 2. Painting the roofs 3. Other maintenance, painting rocks, clean up, etc…

There will be two days of excursions: to a colonial town, coffee tour, volcano and national park.

Samara

This is a complete immersion experience in the Costa Rican culture. Includes meals and housing with local Christian families, volunteering in churches and schools in the community, leading a Vacation Bible School, teaching English classes, and courses. The immersion will include Spanish classes, Costa Rican culture (typical foods, dances, music, customs), walks through the town, a typical party at the end of the week, and a special tour of one of the area's attractions (two examples; kayaking to Isla Chora or Rio Ora, and/or walks with bird watching and fauna in general). It will also include time at a local church Sunday service sharing lunch with the entire congregation and time to thank and bid farewell to the host families.

San Jose

The participants will stay at a house located in a church. The food will be a part of the stay. During these weeks the participants will do outreach with the local church where they are staying, as well as help with projects around the church, and serve at an orphanage where the local church is active in the neighborhood.

There will be time for day trips to the city and additional site seeing opportunities.

Centre for Interdisciplinary Theological Studies (CETI)

The 12 module CETI course on the Church will be taught throughout the 7 weeks in Costa Rica.
